

Cape Primrose Special Collection

This is a completely revamped collection to give colour almost the whole year round. Only well established young plants are sent and romp away upon repotting. All varieties are specifically chosen for ease of flowering, growing and long life. Very special indeed.

Watermelon Wine
Watermelon pink with a deeper throat.

Caitlin
Attractive rose and pink petals with a picotee edge.

Roulette Azure
Sister variety of Roulette Cherry with a broad azure blue border and pure white centre.

Awena
Creamy white flower with shocking pink veins and a yellow throat.

Alissa Yellow
The first ever yellow flowering variety, multi-branching and very free flowering.

Roulette Cherry
This eye-catching variety has a scarlet red border and pure white centre.

hesperis ambleside

Damask Flower. Astonishing, pure white, fully double flowers, which from a short distance, look like column stocks even down to the perfume. A must have plant that every Grandma knew and loved. 18" 2'. HP. Delivery: May Last orders: May

8140 £7.85
(1 plant in 7cm pot)

tropaeolum speciosum

Still something of a legend, this elegant climbing aristocrat has dainty deep green clover-like leaves and brilliant frilly edged scarlet flowers. The Autumn brings a fascinating display of sapphire blue berries. HP.

Delivery: April Last Orders: March

8013 £9.85
(3 bare root thongs)

berkheya purpurea

A very handsome and choice perennial which would enhance any border or 'island bed'. Large lavender blue frosted flowers disguise the protective prickly thistle-like leaves and consequently produce a magnificent display every year. 1 1/2' 2 1/2'. HP.

Delivery: May Last orders: May

8369 (1 plant in 7cm pot) £7.85

dahlia 'war of the roses'

3" ball shaped heads magically produce brilliant white and carmine red flowers on 2'6" plants. Any white flowers are always followed by a bicouleur flower. 2'6". HHP.

Delivery: April/May Last orders: April

8098 (1 pot tuber/plant) £7.50

lathyrus tillyperone

Last time we offered this beauty we sold out in a matter of weeks. Not your common everlasting pea but a vegetatively propagated plant originally from Oxford Botanical Garden with an unusual Dawn Pink flower. Hardy Climber.

Delivery: Late May Last orders: April

8104 (1 plant in a 9cm pot) £8.75

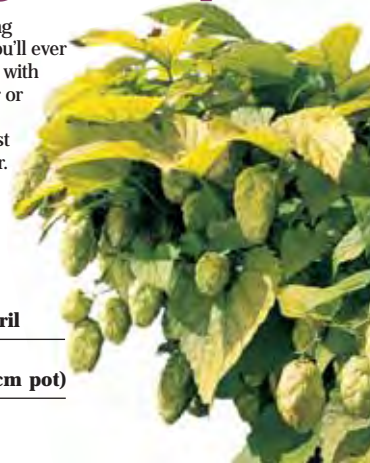

dwarf golden hops

The fastest growing summer screen you'll ever find. Totally hardy with the ability to cover or climb just about anything in the first half of the summer. Remarkably attractive golden foliage and large bunches of 'hops'. 20'. HP.

Delivery: May Last orders: April

8121 £8.75
(1 plant in a 9cm pot)

passiflora belotti

Pink and blue flowers of true Passiflora shape and form but HIGHLY SCENTED.

Needs a temperature of 50-55°F for best results but a porch or conservatory should achieve this easily. We're very selective so far as Passiflora are concerned and this one is very desirable. Delivery: March Last orders: February

8063 (1 potted plant) £9.85

rhododendron cubittii

The very best candidate for a cool greenhouse or conservatory. Huge 5" white flowers surround a primrose centre and are deliciously scented. Would survive outdoors in the South or South-West but otherwise in a cold conservatory. Delivery: March Last orders: February

8368 (1 plant in a 9cm pot) £10.85

daphne retusa

Lovely little shrub originating in China and a lazy plant, only growing about 2-3" each year. However it's purple and white flowers have the most glorious perfume and is perfect for the rockery or troughs. 3'. HSH.

Delivery: July Last orders: June

8270 (1 plant in a 9cm pot) £8.95

buddleia colvileii kewensis

Since offering this Buddleia some years ago we have been swamped with requests for other types. Kewensis is a vastly improved colour being deep red and marginally more hardy. A quite outstanding plant and ideal for tub growing. Climber.

Delivery: June Last orders: April

8237 (1 plant in a 9cm pot) £10.85

abeliophyllum pink forsythia

A different 'Forsythia' with distinct pink flushed flowers, fragrant and easy to grow. Best grown against a wall or fence but occasionally damaged by late frosts.

A good risk though and enviable. 2-4'. HSh. Delivery: June Last orders: April

8245 (1 plant in a 9cm pot) £8.75

campsis flamenco

A very reliable and beautiful climber, vigorous and coming into its own in the second half of the summer.

Masses of multiple heads of orange red trumpet flowers give a continental touch and one would never expect it to be as hardy as it is. Climber.

Delivery: July Last orders: June

8341 (1 plant in a 9cm pot) £8.75

Rare Double Heirloom Hyacinths

Hyacinths have been around for Centuries and in the 1800s they were the most sought after bulb going. Today there are less, but the very choice varieties, maintained by Collectors, are the double forms of which only about 15 varieties exist and we have been fortunate in securing four of them. Heavily perfumed and oozing quality we offer a mini collection of eight bulbs (2 of each) which you will find intoxicating and compelling. (Probably best grown in pots outdoors).

General Kohler

Chestnut Flower

Hollyhock

Madame Sophie

General Kohler (1878)
Huge double bells of purple and sea lavender. The oldest surviving Double Hyacinth of all.

Chestnut Flower (1880)
Dawn pink with deeply recurving petals.

Delivery: Late August Last orders: July

Heirloom Hyacinth Collection 8354 (2 bulbs of each) £12.85

Hollyhock (1936)
Broad deep rose flowers extending the season.

Madame Sophie (1929)
Intricately carved ivory petals jostling for space on a bold spike.

Tulips from Old Amsterdam

There are countless hundreds of Tulips available today but we've selected just two that will astonish you. The last to flower they extend the season very conveniently and will often be unrecognized as tulips.

Tulip Ice Cream
Pure white 'ice cream cornet' surrounded by a single row of rosy pink petals. Quite outstanding and a collector's item seldom seen - if at all.

Tulip Lollipop
Paeony flowered, fully double purple-red with a white picotee edge. Astonishing formation. Choice and difficult to find.

Delivery: Late August Last orders: July

8355 £11.85 (3 bulbs of each)

nerine bowdenii stephanie

Glistening white with a hint of pink towards the petal edges. Gorgeous!
Delivery: March
Last Orders: March
8370 £9.85 (3 bulbs)

nerine sarniensis guernsey lily

Fabulous flowers made up of multiple florets forming a spherical head and a colour to die for! Brilliant ruby red with a reflective sheen and lasts for ages. Prefers to be pot bound. 8-15". HHBulb.

Delivery: March Last Orders: March
8353 (2 bulbs) £9.85

crocus speciosa oxonian

Probably the largest flower and the most spectacular colour you will ever see in a Crocus. Huge flowers which can be easily pot grown herald the Autumn and last for ages. Very choice hardy bulb.

Delivery: Late Aug Last Orders: July

8359 (10 bulbs) £6.50

codonopsis forrestii

The most attractive climbing perennial you could wish to see. Broad leaves and large fabulous bell shaped flowers of deep lavender blue with burgundy throats. Gorgeous!
Delivery: September
Last Orders: June

8126 £7.50 1 bare root tuber

muscari pink sunrise

Everybody loves Grape Hyacinths because they are so persistent. This one however is different. The very first pink form ever produced and staggeringly attractive mixed with any of the blues. Don't miss it.

Delivery: August Last orders: May

8358 (6 bulbs) £8.75

lilium nepalense

Astonishing lime green trumpet with a deep maroon heart. A beautiful species which really needs pot growing - it's that choice. Bulbs are smallish and it's a miracle that such a flower is produced.

Del: Apr/May Last Orders: May

8328 (1 bulb) £6.50
